

Door and tap hardware

Performance Statement:	Home occupants are able to easily and independently open and close doors and safely use tap hardware.
Essential	No requirements.
Desirable	<ul style="list-style-type: none">a. Doorways to feature door hardware installed at between 900mm -1100mm above the finished floor. See figure 23.b. Basins, sinks and tubs to feature lever or capstan style tap hardware with a central spout.

This information was sourced from the national Livable Housing Design Guidelines produced by the National Dialogue on Universal Housing Design.